WASHINGTON, Friday, May 10.—President Roosevelt early today ordered the freezing of all credits held by Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg in this country. He called a conference for 10:30 A. M. of heads of the State, War and Navy Departments to consider pressing problems of neutrality. The President acted swiftly after news of Germany's invasion of the three European neutral countries reached Washington and galvanized high officials into action. His order with regard to the freezing of all the invaded countries' credits and cash balances here was a counterpart of the action taken after Ger-

The International Situation

In the midst of Britain's Cabinet crisis Germany struck another powerful blow early this morning by invading the Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg.

After swarms of planes had engaged in air fights over Amsterdam, parachute troops, some of them clad in Netherland uniforms, descended at strategic points while planes bombed air fields. The Netherlands resisted the incursion and promptly opened the dikes that are part of her water defense system. [Page 1.]

Parachute troops likewise made surprise landings in Belgium and bombs from 100 planes blasted the Brussels airport. [Page 1.] Appeals for help were dispatched to the Allies by the invaded countries and it was understood that machinery of assistance was being set in motion. Queen Wilhelmina in a proclamation issued at The Hague declared, "I and my government will do our duty." [Page 1.]

As in the case of Norway, Berlin explained that the German action had been taken to forestall the Allies; an announcement said that an attack on Germany had been planned through the territory of the Low Countries. What the Reich was doing, it was declared, was safeguarding the neutrality of those countries. [Page 1.]

President Roosevelt lost no time in acting on the new situation. After night conferences he ordered the freezing of credits of the three invaded countries. Further measures are to be

BRUSSELS, Belgium, Friday, May 10.—The invasion Belgium had feared since the outbreak of the European war came before dawn this morning. About a hundred German planes flew over this city and bombed the airport.

The airfield at Antwerp also was bombed. Parachute troops were landed at Hasselt in Eastern Belgium. Artillery fire was reported heard along the German and Luxembourg frontiers.

Anti-aircraft guns at the airport commenced firing with the appearance of the first invaders and kept up a steady barrage. Those in the center of the city went into action

CONSULAT GENERAL OF ISRAEL
New York, N.Y. 10017
300 - 2nd Avenue

ATTENTION: Vice-Consul
Mrs. Hadassah Simcha

In the Jewish Floridian a Miami edited weekly newspaper I read today that an award of "Righteous Gentile" has been given by the Consul General Paul Kedar to Mrs. Jean Bonhomme from St. Etienne, France for saving during the second World War several members of the SHANZER FAMILY

My name is SIEGFRIED GUTTER, 86 years old, survivor of Auschwitz and Buchendald, native of Czechoslovakia (originally Austria).

When I read this article I got very excited because of strong feeling that in this way I discovered the grandchildren of my late sister CHARLOTTE SCHANZER nee Gutter. She was the mother of two sons: BRUNO and MAXMILIAN. The saved members of the Schanzer family must be the children of the above mentioned sons.

The saved members of the Shanzer family are named:
Bernard Schanzer after the grandfather - on father's side
Henry Schanzer after the grandfather - on mother's side (my father)
Anna Steinberg nee Schanzer after the grandmother - on mother's side (my mother)

I am very excited about it, because all my family perished (Sisters, Brothers, Nieces and Nephews). I am the only survivor and would be happy to discover from my family somebody alive, even if only in the third generation. My late sister Charlotte Schanzer lived in Bresslaw, Germany and was deported by the Nazis to Poland. She perished in 1943-1944 in Krakau from where I received her last letter adressed to me in KZ- Auschwitz.

Would you be able, please, to provide me with the ADRESSES and TELEPHONE of the SCHANZER Family? You would make an old, sick man very happy.

May the Hashem bless you.

SHALOM and very respectfully

Mrs.
Hadassah Simha
Vice-Consul of the Consulate General of Israel
300 Second Avenue
New York, N.Y.

Dear Mrs. Simha,

thank you very much for the adress and the telephone
of Mrs. Anna Steinberg.

Yes, in the meantime Mrs. Steinberg and her brothers Bernard and Henry Schanzer contacted me by phone and we had a very exciting four-way conversation.

They are in fact my deceased sister's grandchildren.

So, after so many years through the Jewish Floridian in Miami and the General Consulate of Israel in New York, I had the pleasure to discover some bloodrelatives of mine, when I thought, I am the only survivor of my family.

Enclosed the fotocopy of the Jewish Floridian.

My wife also a survivor of Auschwitz is the Vice-Pres.
of the Council of Pioneer Women and very activ on behalf of Israel and her Children. She works closely with Na'amat (before Moetzet Hapoalot) and with Israeli Bonds. In fact Mrs. Ruth Kedar was the key note speaker at a Pioneer Women's Bend Drive. My wife is the recipient of the Jerusalem Award, Golda Meir Award and for Volunteer Services the 1980 New Life Award.

For all your kindness toward me, my wife pledged to work even harder for the causes of our Spiritual Homeland Medinath Israel.

Again: Toda Raba and Shalom !

Very respectfully yours
